The Ex-Offender's Quick Job Hunting Guide
Putting the 10 Steps Into Action
Ron and Caryl Krannich, Ph.D.s

“Holds the potential of becoming one of the decade’s most significant books . . . a force for good in changing lives and conserving public resources.”—Joyce Lain Kennedy, syndicated careers columnist. That’s what critics say about the authors’ comprehensive companion job search guide for ex-offenders—The Ex-Offender’s Job Hunting Guide (see page 6). Jam-packed with practical insights, self-tests, and exercises, this user-friendly workbook is ideal for both self-directed and instructional purposes. Designed to implement 10 steps for re-entering the work world, the book includes special sections on changing attitudes, community re-entry, networking, completing applications, writing resumes, handling rejections, interviewing, taking responsibility, telling the truth about one’s background, and developing an action plan for making it on the outside. 2006. 128 pages. ISBN 1-57023-250-4. $9.95.

VIDEOS/DVDS

Addiction Video/DVD Series
Terence T. Gorski
This three-part program presents the most recent research on addiction as a brain disease that causes personality problems and social dysfunctions. Takes a hard look at alcohol and other drugs, explains risk factors, and shows how to recognize and stop denial in order to break out of the addiction cycle. Available as either videos or DVDs (please specify). 32 minutes each. 2004. Can purchase separately at $150.00 each. SPECIAL: $400.00 for complete three-part series.

- Mind-Altering Substances
- Substance Abuse and Addiction
- Addictive Risk Factors

Getting Out of the Game: Avoiding the Trap of Drug Dealing Reelizations Media
Money, power, respect, popularity, and glamour all seem to come easy for the drug dealer. This program features a support group for people facing the temptation to return to dealing. The group faces real-life issues: relationships with old friends, financial stress, the illusion that they can deal without using, and the false belief that this time they won’t get caught. Includes free Counselor’s Guide with reproducible client worksheets. VHS or DVD. 35 minutes. $195.00

Meth: Our Nation’s Crisis – A Toolkit for Change
Terence T. Gorski
Finally, a cost-effective toolkit to help communities combat the scourge of methamphetamine! Meth addiction affects everyone in some way—treatment specialists, educators, corrections officers, individuals, and families. This new resource kit educates communities with three video documentaries (on DVD) about meth prevention, addiction, and recovery: Walking on Thin Ice, Meth: Shadow Across America, and Life After Meth. It also includes (PDF files on CD) meth primer for general audiences, community leader’s guide, school guide, parent’s guide, employer’s guide, health care professional’s guide, campaign guide for engaging meth-related public policies, and a directory of additional sources about meth. 2006. $99.00

Marijuana
Explains how chemicals in marijuana collect in the walls of brain cells, impairing the user’s memory, coordination, and perception. Marijuana can also cause changes in judgment and projection of the addict’s problems. This distortion of reality causes the people closest to the addict to behave in a similar way in an effort to cope with the addict. A vicious cycle results, often perpetuated in subsequent generations. 34 minutes. $250.00

Meeting At the Crossroads
Terence T. Gorski
Teens in a juvenile detention facility tell how they got involved with drugs and talk about the negative consequences of their decisions. They discuss peer pressure and what it takes to stay away from drugs. An emergency room physician talks about teen substance abuse, and a trauma surgeon discusses the consequences of drunk driving. $129.00 (DVD) or $139.00 (VHS).

Criminal and Addictive Thinking
As participants in a cognitive-behavioral treatment program, inmates share stories about manipulating, intimidating, physically assaulting, and even murdering individuals who got in the way. Raw, real, and tragic, the inmates’ stories reveal (1) how distorted thoughts and unresolved feelings fuel criminal behavior; (2) why using drugs and committing crimes are fundamentally linked; and (3) what it really means to take charge of your life and respect others. 2002. $225.00

Preventing Relapse
Inmates share their recovery struggles and suggestions for staying clean and sober. Inmates make it clear that relapse is a real and menacing threat, particularly for the newly sober and released. They discuss important relapse prevention actions: (1) avoid high-risk situations and people, (2) get a good sponsor, (3) go to Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, or other support groups regularly, and (4) before acting, ask yourself, is it illegal? immoral? irresponsible? 2002. $225.00

Life on Life’s Terms
Inmates and former inmates discuss what they did to safeguard their sobriety after either reinteg ration into general population or release from incarceration. Offering straightforward and helpful advice, participants talk about their experiences in four critical areas: (1) finding a place to live, (2) searching for a job, (3) figuring out how to handle spare time, and (4) discovering who to turn to for support. 30 minutes. 2002. $225.00

Psychology of Addiction
Explains how chemical substances move through the body to the brain, where psychological effects upon the addict include denial, rationalization, minimization and projection of the addict's problems. This distortion of reality causes the people closest to the addict to behave in a similar way in an effort to cope with the addict. A vicious cycle results, often perpetuated in subsequent generations. 34 minutes. $250.00

Recovery Video Series
This three-part series presents the most recent research on what people do to successfully recover from addiction. Designed to guide viewers through a process that allows them to understand the recovery process, build a foundation for successful recovery, and create a quality recovery that will support sober and responsible living in all stages of life development. VHS or DVD formats. 2004. Can purchase separately at $150.00 each. SPECIAL: $400.00 for complete three-part series.

- The Recovery Process — 33 minutes
- Creating Quality Recovery — 35 minutes
- Building a Foundation for Recovery — 42 minutes

Relapse Video Series
This three-part video series helps individuals in recovery, as well as clinical staff, deal with the main principles and issues affecting relapse prevention and management. The video presents the basic principles of relapse prevention, common warning signs that lead from stable recovery to relapse, and how to establish a relapse prevention and relapse management plan. Each tape is broken down into 8-12 minute segments for questions and discussion. $150.00 each. SPECIAL: $400.00 for the complete series of three videos.

- Basic Principles — 29 minutes
- Relapse Warning Signs — 33 minutes
- Managing Relapse Warning Signs — 46 minutes

Women, Trauma, and Recovery
A high percentage of female addicts have experienced severe trauma—sexual abuse, physical beatings, emotional abuse, violent assault, and witnessing severe violence. Many suffer from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. This program presents the testimony of six recovering women with PTSD. They reveal how distorted thoughts and unresolved feelings fuel their criminal behavior; (2) how they manipulate, intimidate, physically assault, and even murder others; (3) what it means to take charge of their lives and respect others. 2002. $225.00

Drugs of Addiction Video Series
This video series features essential facts and vivid, dramatic personal stories by recovering addicts that challenge myths with realities. 20 to 46 minutes each. Some titles also available in Spanish (*) and DVD. $225.00 each. SPECIAL: $1,395.00 for complete series of 9 videos.
